

Please, Please do not change Indiana's no-call law! Our private lives were miserable before this law. We couldn't have quiet time at home without at least 4 calls a night. Most of the sales people wouldn't take no for an answer, causing us to be rude by hanging up on them. It was very stressfull!